FOREWORD

JUST as newspapers are a chronicle of daily life, so is the purpose of The Gray Castle to preserve in definite form a record of our school life.

Even if the publication is of necessity smaller than those of former years, the staff has endeavored to make it complete in its compactness.

Into the pages of this one book has been crowded the material which we hope marks the hours of every Russ Student—the gay, the quiet, the golden, the fleeting—of our High School life.

DEDICATION

TO MISS ORA M. CUPP

In appreciation of her untiring interest and devoted service, her sympathetic understanding and unswerving loyalty this "Gray Castle" is sincerely dedicated by

THE GRAY CASTLE

ALTHOUGH hampered at the start when confronted with the problem of making drastic changes in the Annual as to size and representation, the staff functioned smoothly with creditable results. An Indian theme was chosen for this June which was carried out in the art inserts and border.

Too much gratitude cannot be extended to the faculty sponsors, Miss Ora M. Cupp and Mr. Arthur Wicks, who acted as literary and business advisers respectively, for the Annual. Special mention also is deserved by Miss Harriett Southwich who selected and supervised all art work.

This year the following students were responsible for putting out the publication: Editor-in-Chief, Esther Harder; Business Manager, Fred Lance, who conducted all financial affairs; Assistant Editor, Ethel Brewer, who took charge particularly of Senior histories; Art Editor, Barbara Wright, who supervised art cuts; Organizations, Evelyn Murray, who wrote up the major activities; Athletics, William McClintock, who attended to the writeups appearing below the various athletic organization pictures; Humor, Margaret Matchinske, who edited that section of the Annual; Circulation, John Wood, who, as his position suggests, supervised distribution; and the typists, Virginia Wells and Robert McDonald.

THE SENIOR CLASS

UNDER the presidency of Paul Edwards, the Senior A class has achieved great distinction during its stay at Gray Castle. Other officers this year were: Vice-President, Morris Pollock; Secretary, Ricardo de la Cruz; and Treasurer, Willard Mayer.

Miss Mary Phillippi and Mr. Arthur Wicks proved to be capable and sympathetic advisers to the class.

The Cabinet as well as all other organizations felt the necessity of economizing and for the first time in many semesters voted against receiving souvenir gifts. Dues this semester were also reduced, and the class thereby got more activities for the money than in previous years.

The play "Oh, Wilbur!" from the Broadway success "Jonesey" was an unqualified success. Ditch Day was held at Del Mar, the class travelling to and from the beach in a special chartered train.

The speaker for Vespers which was held at the Russ Auditorium was the Rev. Jack Wells. Mission Beach was the scene again of the Senior A Ball on June 12.

And on June 16 the beautiful commencement exercises were held in the outdoor organ pavilion in Balboa Park.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

FROM the time the present Senior class entered San Diego High School in September, 1930, its members have been outstanding in school activities. The following are a few of the records:

Miguel Gonzalez, president of the A. S. B. and winner of the boys' popularity contest.

Paul Edwards, four times president of his class.

Selma Young, winner of the $1000 scholarship to the Pasadena Community Playhouse.

Gordon Frost, editor of The Russ.

Gordon Harding, Colonel of the local R. O. T. C.

William McClintock, Southern California regional vice-chairman of the C. S. F.

Jeanette Munkelt, winner of the girls' popularity contest and assistant editor of The Russ.

Willard Mayer and Don McKenney, members of the boys' quartet.

Clem Wescott, president of the Boys' Federation.

Helen Glidden, president of the Girls' League.

Jack Demers, Sam Hill, Mernie La Belle, and Maxine Belshe, yell leaders.

Betty Holcomb, drum majoress.

Thomas Vinton, vice-president of the A. S. B.

William Dickenson, youngest Glider Amphibian Pilot in 1930.

John Formwalt, school radio announcer.

Lucille Kinyon, representative of S.D.H.S. in state shorthand contest.

Chet Smith, picked twice as All Coast League pitcher and winner of the Union trophy.

"Swede" Smith, winner of 1933 Coast League batting average title, All Coast League center in basketball, and All Coast shortstop in baseball.

Morris Pollock, Southern California quarterback, high point track scorer of Coast League, holder of school's broad jump record, and member of the California championship relay team which held a world record.

Sam Galasso, All Conference guard of the Huntington Beach meet, and member of the Southern California baseball team for three years.

Jerry Torrance and Manuel Moreno, Southern California championship wrestlers for two years.

Leonard Murray, member of the California championship relay team which held world record.

SENIOR "A" SONG

Words by Don McKenney

Tune: "You'll Get By." Courtesy of Leo Feist, Inc.

Verse:

We have studied hard here, but at last our work is through
Though we're glad to finish, we're sorry to leave you.
Through the years to come although each goes a separate way
We will all remember, the joys we leave today.

Chorus:

We say good-bye to our castle S. D. High
We'll be true to our mem'ries dear of you.
Thoughts of you we will treasure till we die.
We'll renew our pledge to the White and Blue.

Will you think of us with sadness, because we now must part?
We'll remember you with gladness and hold you in our heart.
And now to thee, June Class of '33 says good-bye with a memory and a sigh.

SENIOR PLAY

"OH, WILBUR!" a rollicking three-act comedy was presented by the Senior A class on the evenings of May 11th and 12th in the Russ Auditorium. The proceeds of the play were put in the Senior A activity fund.

The plot, concerning the love affair of Wilbur Jones, a young college boy, with an actress in the town's stock company, was very lively. The boy's mother strongly disapproves the match and goes so far as to order the girl from the house. Through Wilbur's diplomacy, everything turns out all right, and the play ends happily in a comical strain.

Fred Conrad played the lead of Wilbur Jones, and June Bowler, as Diana Deveraux, the innocent young actress, supported him splendidly.

Others in the cast were: John Redfield and Jayne Miller as Mr. and Mrs. Jones; Selma Young, as Anne Jones, Wilbur's sister; Emily Carr, Mildred Ellis, Wilbur's fiance; Bill McClintock as Bill Morgan, Wilbur's fraternity brother; Olga Chilgren, Katie the Irish maid; Clem Wescott and Louis Masten, the two plumbers; Kenneth Stevenson, the policeman; Miguel Gonzalez, the wealthy business man, Mr. Stanley Jackson; George Upton, who played the role of a negro gardener; Peggy Stewart, Miss Simpson, the girl Billy couldn't get rid of; and Ed Bush, Mr. Halloran.

The play was directed by Miss Marjorie Davis, while Anna Just acted as student manager. Tickets were sold by the entire Senior A Class.

Clever advertisement helped to make the play a success.

SCHOOL SONG

By Mr. W. F. Reyer

(Arrangement of "Song of C")

Verse:

When sight and sound of our castle
Fade in the long dreary years,
You will recall in your hearts again
Memories of old songs and cheers.
You who have fought for the old school,
Placing her standards so high,
You who have stood for fair, square sport,
Will hear her students cry:

Chorus:

San Diego, San Diego, wave your banners high.
San Diego, San Diego, fight until you die.
We'll not forget you
For you are true blue,
Standing always for right.
Hear her calling, calling to you, ever
Honor the blue and white.

ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY

LED BY Miguel Gonzalez, the Associated Student Body has lived up to old traditions and has fulfilled successfully all duties that were before the San Diego High School this year. Although the student body was somewhat hampered by "old man depression," an economic budget planned by the A.S.B. officers was highly successful.

Throughout the semester penny noon dances were staged and enthusiastically received by the students.

Blue and White Day, the two-year old tradition, went off with a "bang" due largely to the efforts of Frances Moore, activity chairman.

Because of the earthquake in Los Angeles and vicinity, a Long Beach Poly High earthquake relief drive was held to help restore the beautiful school of the Hilltop's friendly rivals. The sum collected of $73.05 was appreciated greatly by the receivers.

The traditional A.S.B. Ball was held May 5th in the Boys' Gym. It was a sport dance and under the capable direction of Frances Moore. Gerald Teuber's orchestra played.

On May 19th, the A.S.B. benefit assembly was held. This was the beginning of a new tradition and was put on through the influence of Rupert Noel. School talent was featured and the small sum of five cents charged. The money made was put into the assembly fund for better assemblies next year.

GIRLS' LEAGUE

GUIDED by the splendid leadership of Helen Glidden and the understanding advisory-ship of Miss Elizabeth Freese, the Girls' League for the spring semester of '33 has met with remarkable success.

Activities were opened by the Big and Little Sister Dance which was the usual success. Throughout the year, assemblies were given on the average of once a month, two sales were sponsored, and a spring dance was given.

"Haunted Stairs," a mystery play was sponsored by the organization and from reports was a huge success.

Corresponding with Boys' Day the girls of the school ousted the teachers from their respective positions and played "School Marms" for the day, March 31.

A children's play, "Cinderella" was given and enjoyed by mothers and daughters June 9th and 10th. This is the first time anything like this has been attempted.

Of the seven committees, which include friendship, publicity, program, decoration, social service, student welfare and welcome, probably the most active is the social service committee. This has charge of the naval hospital, the neighborhood house, and the magazine drives.

BOYS' FEDERATION

EVERY BOY automatically becomes a member of the Boy's Federation on entering San Diego High. Although it is not compulsory to be an active member, all are encouraged to join.

The spring semester was headed by the following: President and Vice-President, due to the resignation of Jack Demers, Clem Wescott; Secretary, Jerry Torrance; and Treasurer, Stanley Janeck.

Full of activities such as assemblies, rallies and dances, this semester has been exceptionally lively.

The Boys' Hi-Jinx, an annual spring federation activity, was proclaimed the best ever staged. The affair which was held on the afternoon of March 30th, and the evenings of March 30th and 31st, was under the capable direction of Paul Parker.

To promote better co-operation between parents and teachers, a father and son banquet was given in the Cafeteria April 6th. Entertainment lasted throughout the evening.

The three federation committees for the spring semester with their respective heads were: Personal Service Committee, Elya Bressler; Safety Committee, Charles Taylor; and School Service Committee, Paul Parker.

THE RUSS

UNTIL the present semester The Russ stood as the only paper on the coast which was supported solely by advertisements. Financial conditions, however, made it seem that some other plan of support would have to be arranged. Mr. Jean Hodges, commercial teacher, supervised a contest among the fifth period classes, and 1600 subscriptions at ten cents each were secured. Also copies were sold for one cent apiece.

Beginning another new policy, The Russ sponsored a bulletin board display which was changed twice daily. News was furnished from material in downtown papers. This plan enabled students to learn of the latest local, national, and international occurrences at an early date.

In the annual Columbia Press Association contest the paper was awarded first place in its division. Judgement was based upon publications of the fall semester. A feature story by Le Roy Keleher won the contest at the Southern California Press convention. Although copies of the paper were entered in the National Press contest, word of the outcome had not been received in time for publication.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION

HAVING SIXTY-FOUR active members and fifteen honor members, the local chapter of the California Scholarship Federation of the spring semester knew no limit in success of activities.

To become a member of this organization, a student must receive ten points. The grade of "A" in a solid counts three points, a "B", one; one-half solids are proportioned correspondingly. Not more than two points may be gained from extra-curricular activities.

On April 21, the club sponsored a New Deal Dance which was pronounced one of the best of the year. Ed Johnston's orchestra was featured and novelty entertainment provided.

The annual banquet, to which members of both semesters were invited, was held May 18. The Hoover Chapter also attended.

May 29 was a red letter day — the semi-annual ditch day! This spring the group went to the beach, and what fun they had while their more unfortunate schoolmates toiled wearily over their studies.

C. S. F. was led by the following: President, Margaret E. Miller; Vice-President, Jean Frame; Secretary, Esther Harder; Treasurer, Ethel Brewer; Activity Commissioner, Lester Wahrenbrock; and Publicity Commissioner, Frances Moore.

The club has as its faculty adviser, Mrs. Olga Hammon.

ADVANCED ORCHESTRA

UNDER THE leadership of Mr. Nino Marcelli the San Diego High School Orchestra ranks as one of the outstanding organizations of the Gray Castle.

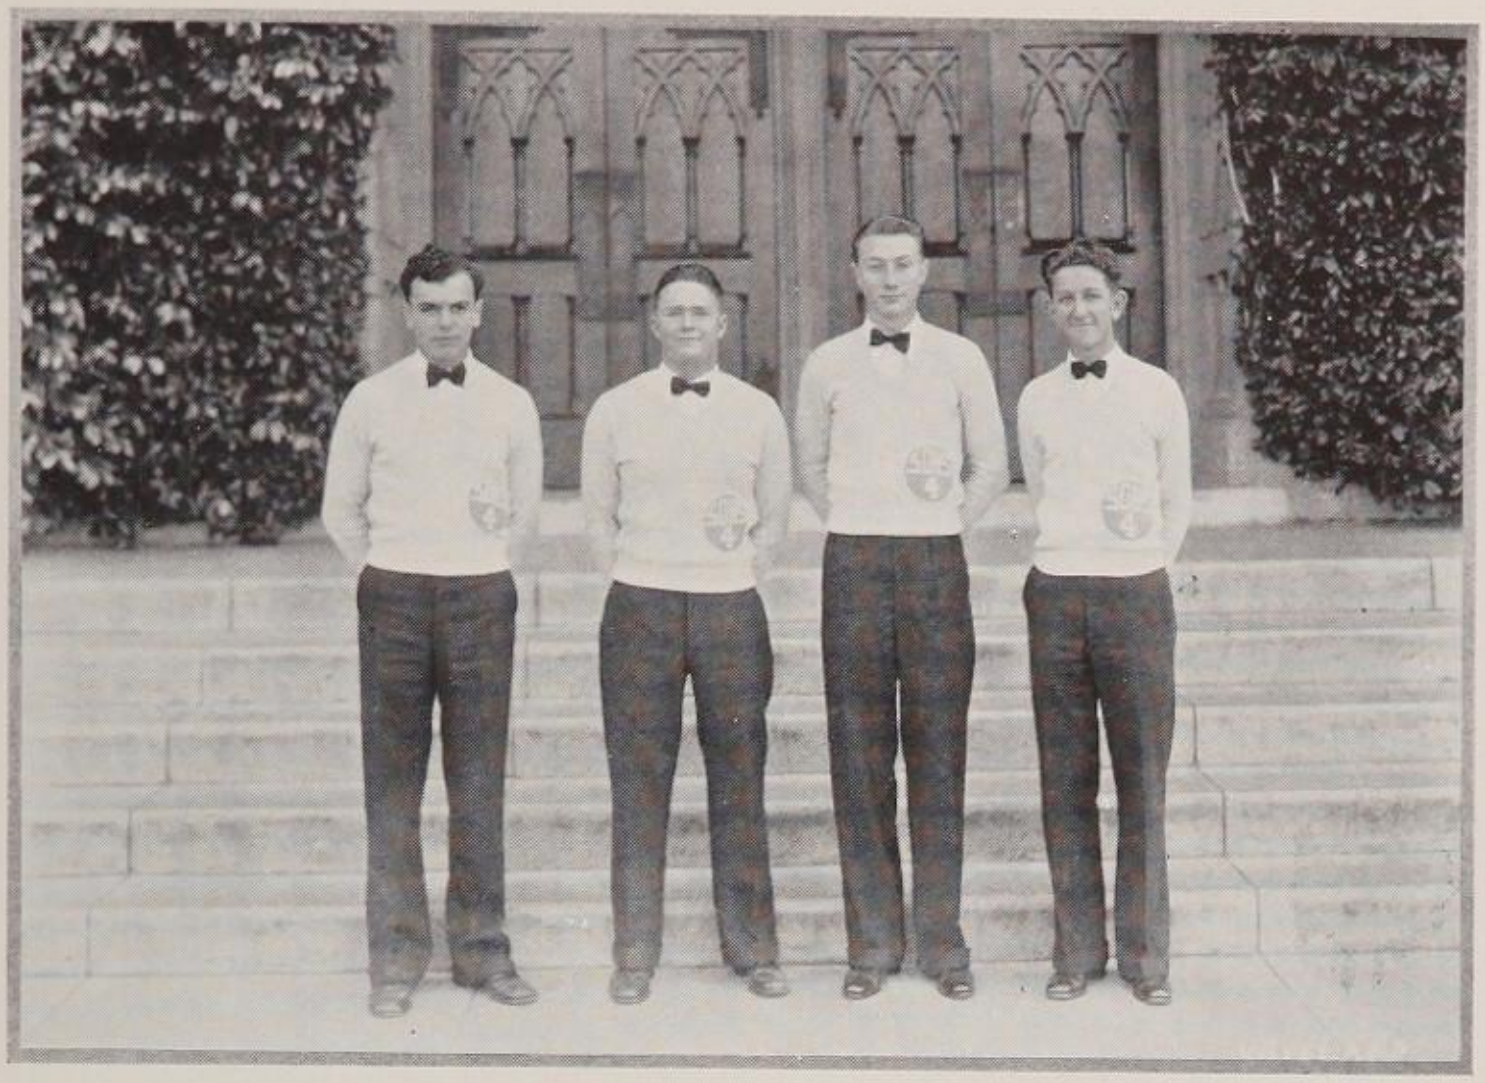
The greatest accomplishment of the orchestra is the concert which is given in the Russ Auditorium near the close of each semester. This program is rated as one of the major activities of the year and is enjoyed by many. In the spring semester, the main numbers of the concert were Rienze Overture by Wagner, 1812 Overture by Tschaikowsky, and Caprice Espanole by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

There are two social functions which are enjoyed by the entire orchestra, namely a dinner and dance which was held this year at the Cabrillo Cafe, and an invitation to spend a day at the mountain home above Lake Cuyamaca, of Mr. and Mrs. Marcelli.

Twice a year an initiation for new members is held. This is always an amusing affair.

Although the organization started with eighteen members in 1922, it has increased greatly and now numbers eighty-two. Benjamin Harrison performed the duties of concert master this semester.

Organized in the same respect as other clubs, the orchestra has four executive officers. The four who directed the activities for the spring semester were: President, Murdock Kidder; Vice-President, Charles Jacobson; Secretary, Lois Thompson; and Treasurer, Betty Jean Capp.



BOYS' QUARTET

HAVING REPRESENTED the school in more than two hundred engagements during the year, the San Diego High School Quartet has rendered more service to the Gray Castle than many other organizations.

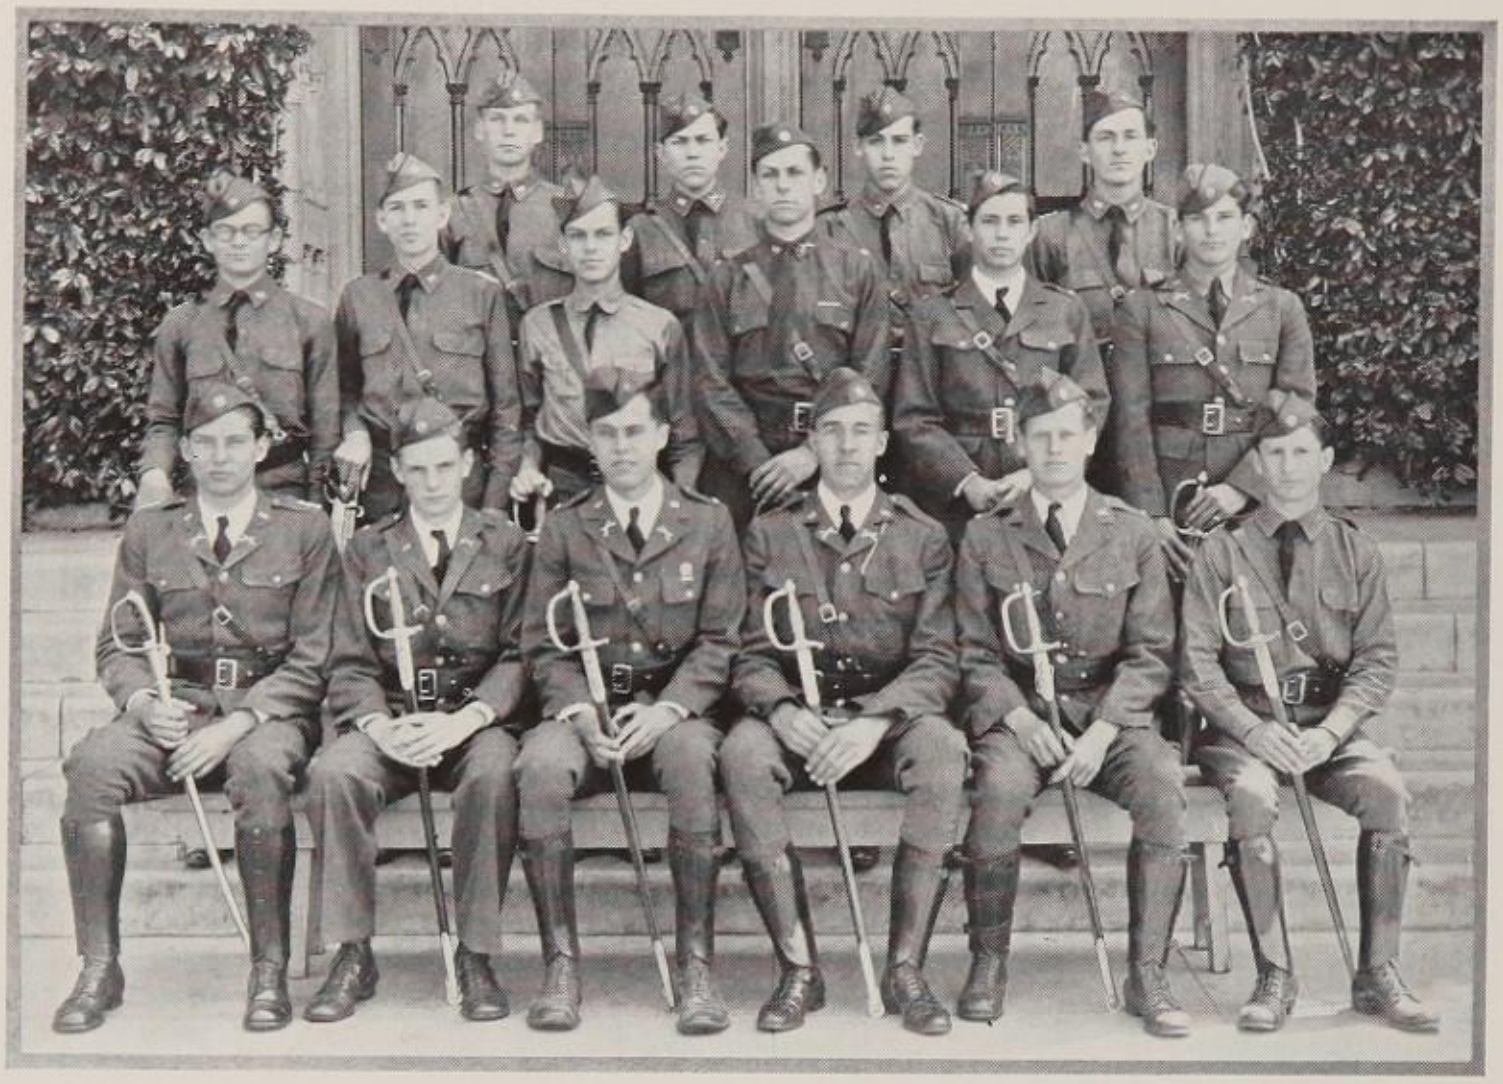
They have sung over the radio, at school functions, in churches, and at such groups as the Kiwanis Club, the Ad Club, the Electric Club, and the P. T. A.

The quartet is entirely an honor subject, no credit being given except the reward of doing something which is worthwhile.

Led by Mr. W. F. Reyer, they have as their accompanist Mrs. W. F. Reyer, who also arranges most of their songs.

Those who composed this year's quartet, were as follows: in the fall Francis Schultz, first tenor; Willard Mayer, second tenor; Don McKenney, baritone; John Walsh, bass. The replacements for the spring were Meredith Mosher and Jack Dawson.

Mr. Reyer also has under his direction the boys' and girls' advanced glees and the boys' and girls' elementary glee clubs. These organizations are well known throughout the city and county for their active and excellent work in various public performances.



R. O. T. C.

THE SAN DIEGO High School unit of R. O. T. C. is organized into two battalions and is under the direction of Major Harold P. Kayser and Sergeant Neil Megerle, both of the 30th Infantry. The course has two aims, first and primarily, to inspire intelligent citizenship by starting the formation of habits of responsiveness, orderliness, courtesy, obedience, correctness in posture, and respectfullness; and second, to prepare a student for further military instruction.

The men are instructed in close order, extended order, control of men in combat, military discipline and leadership, military policy, map reading, scouting, patrolling, rifle marksmanship, first aid, and hygiene. The R. O. T. C. has about two hundred and twenty-five men.

The Gens De Guerre is composed of twenty-five commissioned officers of the San Diego High School unit of the Reserve Officers Training Corps. The function of the club is to promote a better understanding and co-operation among the officers of the R. O. T. C.

Money is raised by means of sales and dances, and is used to cover the cost of the annual pictures, the annual officers' dance and miscellaneous expenses.

The following were officers for the spring semester: President, John Wood; Vice-President, Stuart Smith; Secretary, Kirby Walker; and Treasurer, Max Brownstein.

DEBATE

DEFENDING CHAMPIONS of the county league cup, this semester's Hilltop Debate Squad ably kept up its traditional good record.

Members of the 1932-33 squad were Jean Frame, Lester Wahrenbrock, Virginia Kerr, Violet Pritchard, Gracia Mae Carpenter, Dick Lustig, and Rupert Noel, debate manager. Mr. Herbert C. Peiffer was the debate coach and faculty sponsor.

On November 4th Alhambra met S. D. H. S. on the question, Resolved, that co-education is a regrettable feature of the American school system. The Gray Castle team, composed of Jean Frame and Lester Wahrenbrock upholding the affirmative side, won a unanimous decision.

December 11th Grossmont High School debated with S. D. H. S. at the Trinity Methodist Church where the Caveman team of Violet Pritchard and Virginia Kerr achieved victory.

A different type of debate where two squads of four each, composed of two members from each school, oppose one another was held in the new auditorium at Long Beach Poly High on February 24. At the conclusion of the debate an audience vote awarded the decision to the negative, of which Violet Pritchard and Virginia Kerr were members.

On November 8th Dick Lustig and Gracia Mae Carpenter debated Grossmont High in a non-decision affair, and a series of the same type were held with Santa Ana on May 3rd. The main debate was given before the assembly.

DRAMATIC COUNCIL

NEARLY 100 students interested in the study and production of plays composed the San Diego High School Dramatic Club this year.

The activities of the club consisted of the production of two full-evening plays, "Admirable Creighton" by James Barrie and "The Youngest" by Phillip Barry. Short plays, moreover, were presented in the Little Theatre for the regular club meetings which were held every Thursday afternoon ninth period. One semester of drama is a pre-requisite for membership.

At the annual Pasadena One-Act Play Tournament held in April, San Diego High School took first place. Selma Young won the $1000 scholarship to the Community Playhouse. The cast of "Mansions" directed by Miss Marjorie Davis and sponsored by the Dramatic Club included: Jean Burt, Selma Young and James Holloway, who was replaced by Rupert Noel in the finals. Anna Just, play manager, received the trophies won in the county competition at a special meeting of the Dramatic Club.

A banquet honoring the outgoing council and installing the new was held at the end of the first semester, and the annual Dramatic Club faculty tea was given in June.

Officers of the club for the first semester were: President, Ed Roche; Vice-President, Jean Burt; Secretary, Pearl Fletcher, and Treasurer, James Holloway. For the second semester: President, Rupert Noel; Secretary, Pearl Fletcher; and Treasurer, Anna Just.

ATHLETICS

FOOTBALL

FOOTBALL, under the leadership of Coach "Hobbs" Adams, enjoyed a fairly successful season in 1932, staying up with the best of the leaders and finishing the season in a tie for second place. With such threats as Wynn, Hall, Giddings, and Wescott lost to the team, the pennant winning chances of the Hillers seemed slight, but the enthusiasm was undiminished at the Hilltop as it is generally known here that Adams usually puts out a good ball team.

After several preliminary games in which the Hillers were victors over Woodrow Wilson and losers to Pomona, the team opened the Coast League season with Alhambra. The underdogs of the game, the Cavemen, came from behind in a thrilling second half to win 12 to 7.

The Saints of Santa Ana, Coast League champions, were next on the list with the Hillers still the decided underdogs. The high hopes of the Cavemen were blasted, however, in the first few minutes of play, when the Saints scored through a rather shaky defense. From then on it was anybody's game with the Saints coming out on the long end of an exciting 6-0 score.

The Hillers next journeyed to Phoenix to defeat the Arizonians, and then on the following Saturday outplayed and outscored Pasadena in a tight game in the stadium—the score, 12 to 0.

Glendale was played the next week-end in the north with San Diego coming home the winners of a 20 to 7 victory.

The final game of the season was played at Long Beach with the Hillers coming out on the short side of a 7 to 6 victory for Long Beach. This defeat pulled the Cavemen out of a sure second place to finish in a tie for the same position with Long Beach Poly.

Varsity lettermen included: Dave Arnett, Walter Beerle, Bud Castleman, Don Callison, Bob Chase, Ned Crawford, Jim Dakis, Coy Dunn, Oliver Day, Paul Edwards, Halden Gray, Alex Gentles, Ernest Cuadras, Darwin Florea, Clayton Hager, Grant Stone, Leonard Murray, Randall Meyers, R. C. Moore, Rudolph Grah, Clyde Westland, Jess Morris, Al Padilla, Bob Sanders, James Riveroll, Bill Simons, Morris Pollock, Frank Penuelas, and Ed Knapp.

BASKETBALL

AT LAST the San Diego High Basketball Team, never before winner of the Coast League championship, finally came through under the tutorship of "Mike" Morrow to tie with the Long Beach cagers for the championship. Each team won seven games and lost three.

San Diego opened the season by defeating Santa Ana twice on the latter's cage floor, after which Glendale trekked to San Diego where the Hillers defeated them twice. The Cavemen went next to split a two game series with Alhambra. The following week-end San Diego again journeyed north to break even in two games with Pasadena.

In the final games of the season, San Diego met Long Beach here in the gymnasium. After losing the first game, the Hillers again came through to win the second game and earn the right of a tie for the championship.

Because of the loss of such stars as Harry Brunner and "Jazz" Morris through graduation, the San Diego High cagers gave Long Beach the privilege of competing in the playoffs.

The players to receive letters in basketball were: Captain Sam Galasso, Harry Brunner, Henry "Swede" Smith, "Jazz" Morris, Alex Gentles, Chet Smith, Ernest Cuadras, Oliver Day, Bob Chase, Bill Buehlman, and Martin Mendez. Five lettermen will be back next year.

COACH GLENN BRODERICK

TRACK

THE SAN DIEGO High School Track and Field Team finished second this year to Glendale High. Under the guidance of Coach Glenn Broderick the team in its first league start defeated Pasadena 75 1-3 to 37 2-3 in the stadium with Captain Morris Pollock carrying away high point honors.

Alhambra, because of financial conditions, chose to forfeit to San Diego, giving the Hillers their second victory. The Cavemen then journeyed to Huntington Beach to finish second to El Centro in the northern invitational meet.

San Diego gained an advantage in the growing San Diego-Herbert Hoover rivalry by drubbing the Cardinals 76 to 37 in the stadium. Faust Carmona ran a splendid mile race, outsprinting Lichty of Herbert Hoover to win in the fast time of 4:39 3-5.

Santa Ana next came to San Diego and was defeated by a score of 71 1-2 to 41 1-2 in the Hillers' third Coast League victory.

With a championship within its grasp the team journeyed to Glendale to engage the Blasters. The Hilltoppers came back on the short side of a 71 1-2 to 40 1-2 score. "Mushy" Pollock was easily the outstanding athlete, copping both sprints while Ambrose Schindler nearly broke the San Diego record by high jumping 6 feet, 1 inch.

Concluding the current season in San Diego, the Hillers again trounced Herbert Hoover 73 1-2 to 39 1-2 in the stadium.

BASEBALL

BASEBALL, the spring sport which has brought so many titles to San Diego High School, started out this season in a big way with ten lettermen back. With Coach "Mike" Morrow at the helm, the team, after several successful pre-season games, defeated Herbert Hoover 14 to 3 in the first game of a city series.

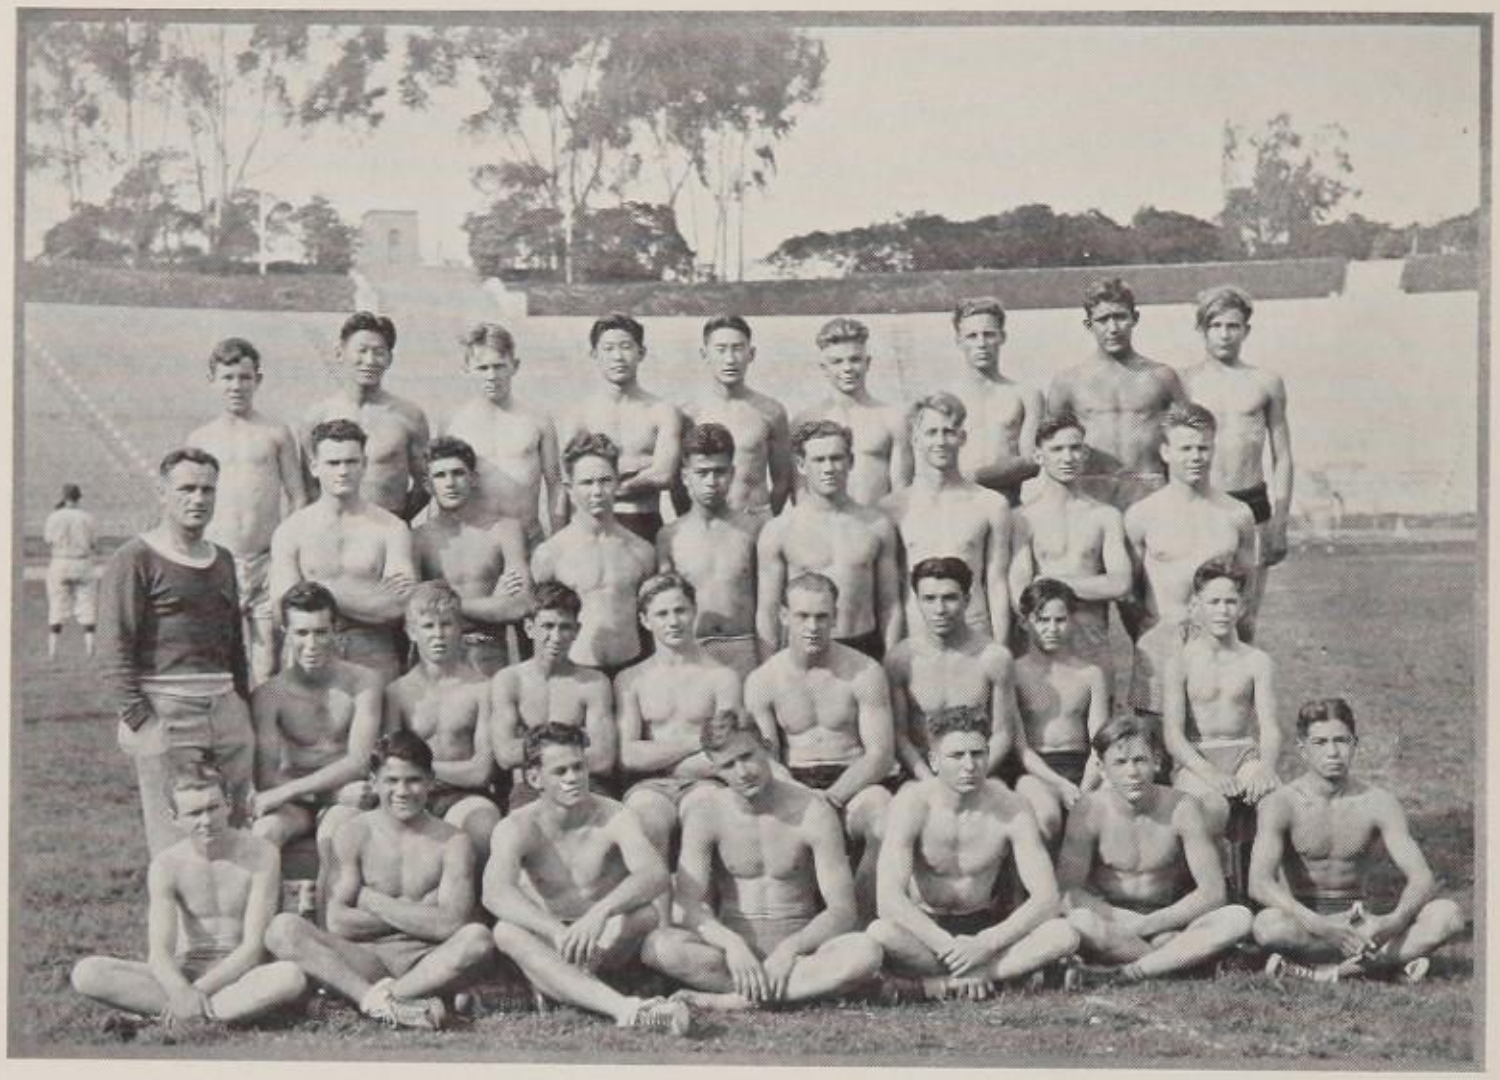
Opening the Coast League season the Hillers defeated Pasadena 10 to 0 with Chet Smith pitching a splendid no-hit, no-run game, his second in two years. The Cavemen missed the familiar face of Captain Henry Smith at shortstop due to an injury he received in the Herbert Hoover game.

Alhambra was next to fall with Smith pitching a two-hit, shutout game while his teammates collected fifteen runs off three Alhambra pitchers.

Herbert Hoover tied the city championship series with San Diego by defeating the Hillers 4 to 3. The final game was to have been played at a later date.

The Hilltoppers received their fourth victory by a default from Long Beach and were assured of either a championship or a tie with Glendale for first place, the game to be played later.

Varsity men were: Captain Henry Smith, Chet Smith, Robert Kerr, Bernard Storton, Sam Galasso, Stanley Janeck, Bill Pressley, Ed Chilton, Tom Vinton, Walter Tallamente, Alex Gentles, Carmen Castillo, Jimmy Salmon, R. C. Moore and Czar Raifolovitch.



WRESTLING

THE SAN DIEGO High School Wrestling Team again came through nicely this year. The grapplers, under the direction of Coach Frank Crosby, well-liked high school mentor, won its first meet of the year in the County A.A.U. Tournament. The Hillers gained 42 points while their nearest opponent had but 25. First place champions included Ray Larceval, 95 pounds, Alfonso Penuelas, 105 pounds, Suki Azumi, 115 pounds, and Elwyn Thompson, 175 pounds. Second place men included Rutherford, 95 pounds, Preisler, 105 pounds, Logsdon, 115 pounds, M. Hattori, 125 pounds, Covert, 135 pounds, and F. Penuelas, 145 pounds.

After two months of competition the biggest wrestling tournament in the high school history was completed, during which time two hundred and thirty-four matches were held.

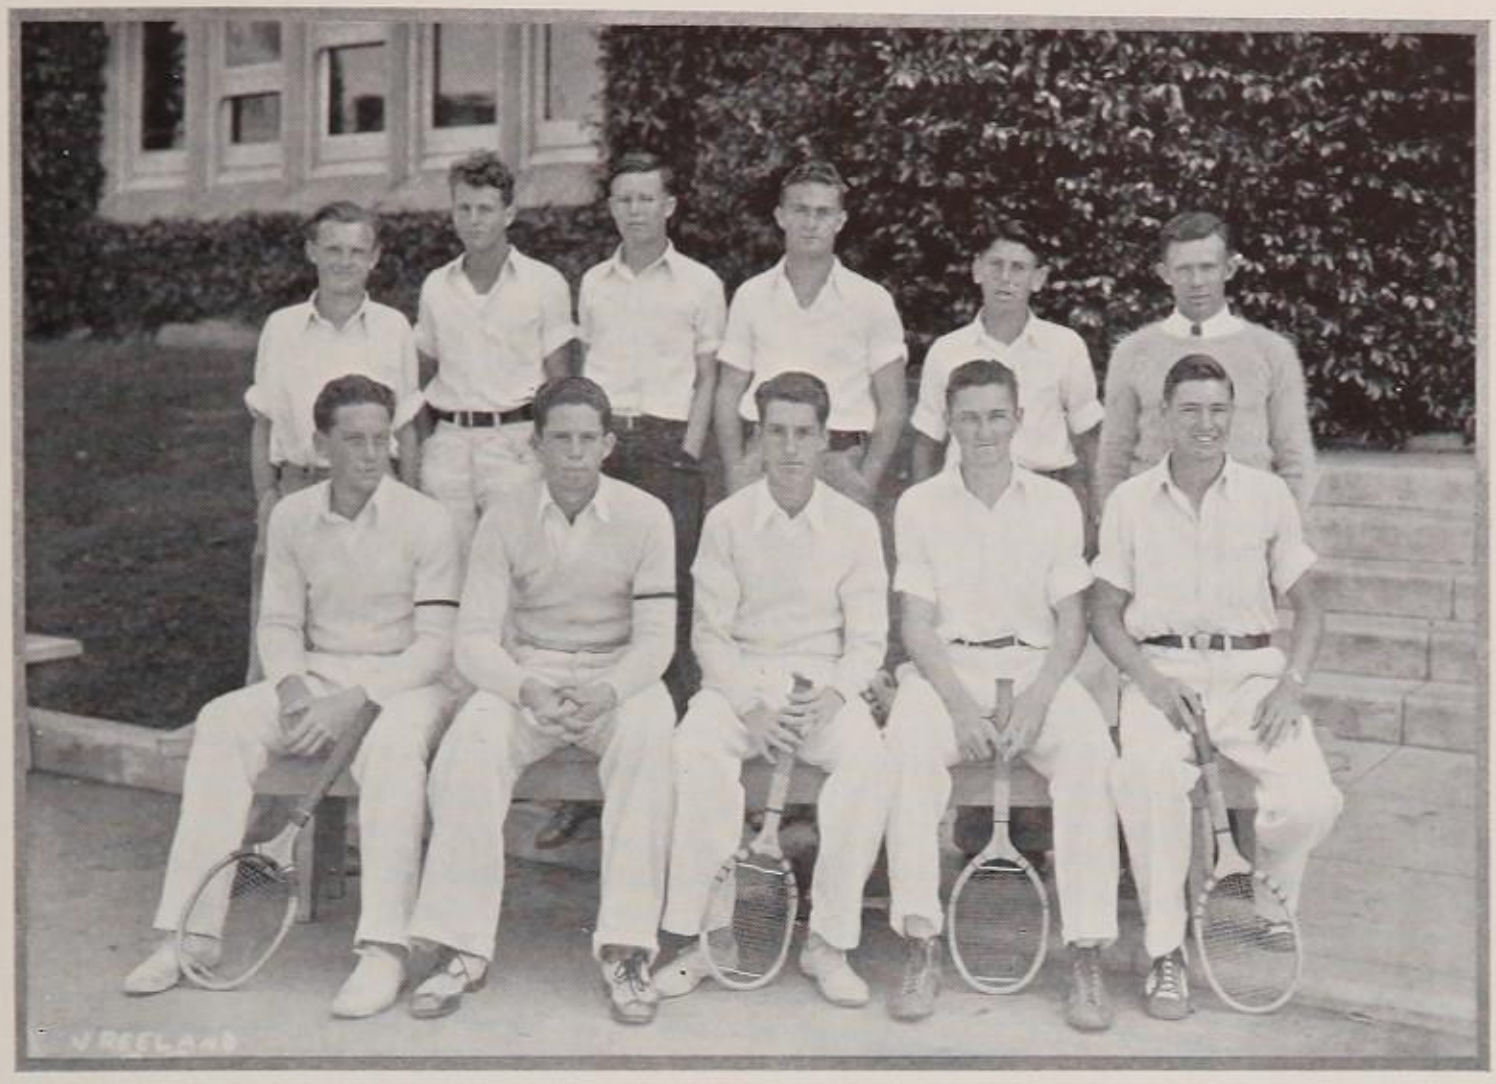
The wrestlers gained a distinct edge in the Herbert Hoover rivalry, defeating the Cardinals 17 matches to 1



TENNIS

TENNIS, one of San Diego's most popular minor sports, yet one of the least known, again had a fairly successful season. Under the leadership of Coach Charles Burton the tennis team played many matches during the season winning to date eleven while losing but four.

Because of the fine showing made by the Hilltop Team of 1932, the High School Tennis Squad was re-entered in the Coast League this year. The return of the locals to the league was far from auspicious, however, the Hilltop netters losing to Pasadena, 5 to 1. Bill McClintock was the only Hiller to win a match. The Hillers next traveled to Alhambra to come home on the short side of a 4 to 2 score. The Cavemen met Santa Ana in the north for the next match and emerged the losers of a 6 to 5 score.

The netters gained an edge in the Hoover rivalry, defeating the Cardinals 5 to 1 the first time and tying 3 to 3 in the second meeting.

The Hillers through defaults from Glendale and Long Beach were able to finish in a tie for third place, with Alhambra and Pasadena ahead of them.

The first ten men on the team include: John Lamb, Bill Buehlman, Sam Woodhouse, Bill McClintock, Garnet Glenney, Evert Baugher, Jack Drummond, Lloyd Ludwick, Burdette Kinne, and Louis Brownstein.

G. A. A.

TO PROMOTE interest in the girls' athletics and to inspire better "sportswomenship" has been the aim this year of the Girls' Athletic Association, one of the most active organizations during the past semesters.

Those who held the upper four chairs this spring were as follows: President, Selma Young; Vice-President, Ruth Giacolli; Secretary, Carroll Gardner; and Treasurer, La Marjolaine Grant. Without the untiring assistance of Miss Miriam Paine, faculty adviser, however, the club's rating would not be so high.

During the latter part of March, the semi-annual executive board party was staged at Lake Arrowhead. They say, those few lucky ones, that they had a grand time.

The basketball tourney was climaxed by a big spread in the Flat. A committee of girls prepared the menu and served. On May 6 nine senior girls participated in a play day at Grossmont Union High.

When the weather became warm, the annual hockey party took place. The girls left on Monday afternoon, returning to their respective homes the following Tuesday.

On May 6, also, delegates attended a conference at Glendale to discuss current G. A. A. problems.

In all, it was a busy year and a fine organization.

CLASS PROPHESY

AS I, MADAM KNOWAL, throw myself in a trance to look thirty years into the future of the June Class of 1933, I see Nadia Herman, an attractive, tall, blonde, society matron, starting a new style by wearing suspenders and shorts, and there's her husband, Albert Watson, a short, grey-haired, old fellow industriously working in his prize petunia garden.

My vision fades, ah! now it clears again and I see Olga Chilgren as the fire-eater of Harold Greig's one and a half ring circus and her adoring sweetheart, William Cloes, who is the sword swallower; also Wilber Von Gunden, the living skeleton. Ah! Ah! the biggest act ever, Henry Smith, the first man to wrap a snake around his neck and swallow it!

Now I see George Mosley, prosperous proprietor of a beer garden in flourishing National City, and in his employ is Anita Ambrose, who is the head dance hall hostess, Minerva La Belle, Lois Rees, Barbara Roberts, and Frances Roth, the alluring taxi dancers, and Ray Peters, and Harrie Whitney, the handsome gigolos, who give zest to bored society "dames," Mabel Kellerby and Charlotte Ronan. There's Norman Fritchoff, "famous master of ceremonies," introducing the Hot-cha Blonde Babies, Constance Bettencourt, Eunice Brothers, and Carrie Gibson. Look! behind the bar stands the charming Maxine Belshe—who would have dreamed her ambitions would lead her there!

Now I see Paul Edwards, and his manager Quintin De Young, on a soap box imploring the voters to elect him pound master, his slogan is "Bigger and better hot dogs at a cheaper price." Also in politics I see Miguel Gonzalez, who is running for garbage and trash collector, and his appeal to the voters is "We all know the depression is on but we want better service and less damage to garbage and trash cans!"

Ah! ha! there I see Fred Burke, a noted detective, the old sleuth! His latest job was a trek through the wilds of Tia Juana to hunt for two lost Mexican jumping beans. Theodore Pfatenhauer, chief of police of Chula Vista is introducing a new Pinkerton to his squad of sleuths. It is no other than Anna Just, daintily handing out traffic tickets.

A new personality appears. It is a girl, no a woman, Dolores Burt, operating an elevator in Ralph Darrow's fifty story soap factory, following her burning ambition to rise. Here comes one of her fellow employees, Junior Searl, one of the crew of night watchmen. (Now he can keep his ears clean for nothing!)

I see more people, Ralph Moyer's day nursery and little Robert F. Kerr, Jr., who keeps throwing his lead soldiers at the fussy head nurse, Willard Mayer. Who should walk in but Jerry Torrance coming to get his twins, Jerry Jr. and Maxine.

Oh—! the main spring in my brains has broken and my main cog wheel has refused to operate! My vision fades and the future of the other members of the June class of 1933 remains hidden in the hands of fate!

JOKES

Harry Brunner: "I was out in the country yesterday."
Sam Galasso: "Somebody have a picnic?"
Harry Brunner: "Yeah, the mosquitoes."

Ray Antrim (to hard-hearted waiter): "Is my face good for a cup of coffee?"
Waiter: "Well, it'll make a lot better soup bowl."

Clem Wescott: "Oh, a small hammock, just big enough for one, but - - er - -strong enough for two."

Jack Drummond: "Can I get a room for three?"
Clerk: "Have you a reservation?"
Jack Drummond: "What do you think I am—an Indian?"

Gordon Harding: "You are the sunshine of my life. You alone reign in my heart. Without you life would be a cloud."
Ruth Close: "Is this a proposal or a weather report?"

Bill Henry: "How could a frog, a duck and a skunk get in a circus if they didn't have any money?"
Stanley Janeck: "The frog would get in on his green back; the duck would get in on his bill; the skunk would get in on his scent."

Frances Blackburn: "Daddy, aren't sheep the stupidest of living creatures?"
Dad (absent mindedly): "Yes, my lamb."

Clyde McMorrow: "That's the funniest portrait I ever saw."
Bill Crawford: "Come away from there, that's a mirror."

Robert Felios: "You say Joe got killed, how come?"
Manuel Moreno: "He put his head in the saloon and hollered 'Fire.' "
Robert Felios: "Then what?"
Manuel Moreno: "They did."

Leonard Murray: "Did you make these biscuits, dear?"
Anita Ambrose: "Yes, darling."
Leonard Murray: "Well, I would rather you would not make any more, sweetheart. Because, angel mine, you are too light for such heavy work."

Harold Greig: "Why do you call me the flower of the outfit?"
Arthur Huckett: "Because you're such a blooming idiot."

Lady (to small boy scrubbing the front steps): "Is your mother in?"
Allen Hanlon: "Do you think I would be scrubbing these steps if she wasn't?"

CLASS WILL OF JUNE '33

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

We, the class of June of One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-three of San Diego High School, San Diego, California, on this day of June 16, being of sound and benevolent mind, the which having been doubted, and in our presence, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

We realize that in the past year we have oft done that which we ought not to have done, and have similarly left undone that which we ought to have done. Therefore, in this, we shall try in our small way to make amends.

With all due reverence we appoint Mr. John Aseltine sole executor of the property to be committed to the care and protection of those herein mentioned, we being in no mind to take it with us.

To the faculty we offer our sincere regards and thanks for their co-operation and their work in our interest, and the hope that the incoming sophies display to them the constant politeness and irreproachable conduct that we so nobly exemplified.

To the Senior A advisers we leave our gratitude for the many things they have done for us and ask that they remember the class of June '33.

We bequeath our love, financial difficulties, the first fifteen rows of the auditorium, and the pangs of fifteenth week unsatisfactories to the Senior B's.

There are a few personal bequests:

Rudolph Grah leaves his towering height to Russell Garrison.

Paul Edwards and Miguel Gonzalez settle their executive powers on Grant Stone.

Willard Mayer leaves what money he has not squandered out of the treasurey to Harold Tenney until a new Senior A treasurer is forthcoming.

Ray Peters relinquishes his girlish figure to R. C. Moore.

Leonard Murray and Morris Pollock leave their fleetness of foot to Elya Bressler in his dash to the lunch line.

Elizabeth Carter hands the book "How to Gossip in Ten Lessons" to Monica Flannigan.

Geoge Upton deposits his one and only sweat shirt with Norman Fritchoff to add to his collection of antiques and heirlooms of famous people.

And now as we draw our last fleeting breath we bid the old school a fond farwell, and PASS ON.

Witness thereof,

Ima Dumbell
Heeza Nut

Executor,

W. E. Meanwell

Respectfully submitted this day of June 16, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and thirty-three.

Senior A Class of June '33

APPRECIATION

THE Gray Castle is completed after a semester of hard work on the part of several students and individuals, and we would like at this time to express our appreciation to the following: Vreelands Photographers for the excellent pictures; Neyenesch Printers for their patience and advice; Sunset Engravers for their splendid service; Schillers Book Binders for their work on the cover; to Zellerbach Paper Company from whom the paper was ordered; to Harold Tenny, Graduate Manager, whose assistance with financial affairs proved invaluable; to Miss Ora M. Cupp, Miss Harriet Southwich and Mr. Arthur Wicks for their advisory work, and to Barbara Wright, Ruthann Lyons, George Somers, and Claire Gulick for the insert designs. And finally we wish to acknowledge the co-operation and energy of the staff.
